Dear Mr. MacFadden

Thank you very much for your kind invitation: we shall be delighted to come. We are staying longer in Famagusta than we had expected, and have not yet made up our minds when we shall leave. I will write well beforehand suggesting a time for our visit which I hope will be convenient to you.

With best wishes

Yours sincerely

Dear Mr Hill,

Many thanks for your kindest invitation to have dinner with you this evening at 8 p.m. I shall be delighted to come.

yours very truly,

Sept. 16

Dear Mr. Hill,

In a few moments Renzig Bey will leave for Sukara so I hasten to write these few lines to send with him.

My journey here was made without mishap but the weather in central Anatolia caught me unawares with the result that I have spent the last three days in bed with a cold and internal disorders. Now, however, I am back on my feet again and ready for work.

The past few days have been cold and rainy and outside work was impossible so my sickness was properly timed if such is possible. There will be no difficulty in completing the work here by the first of October. Unless I hear from you to the contrary I shall meet you in Cyprus as previously planned.

This is an interesting place, the staff more than the dig but I'll tell you of that later.
I am necessarily learning Turkish but slowly.

I am writing my address below and shall anxiously wait for some word from you.

Yours
Lewey

Dear Mr. Hill —

At present working, this thing is I believe all right — The bookbinder however assures me that so it was also the first time it left his hands, & that the cover may always show a tendency to warp, because of the wings, or flaps, beneath. Since the back & the flaps seem quite flat, & it is these that will support the contents, I hope this condition will not prove fatal to the usefulness of the thing. —

All yours — from
