

(S)

S30 K1169

Scarab

Pale steatite; traces of porcelain-blue glaze.

present color, rather chalky white.

Two Horus figures holding papyrus tree. Ankh signs before them, feathers behind.

1954-76 (13-14)

2-12-35

Tomb 31
Kal.

L. 0.014
W. 0.013
h. 0.009

Deeply incised scarab features,
pierced longitudinally

Kamir: Phoenician?

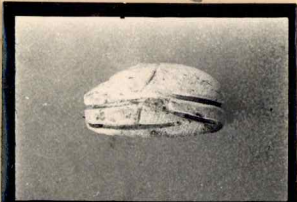

1954-76

(12)

Burial Vault A (Cyprus Archaic I) J.F.D. III, p. 59, # 104

S31 K1168

Scarab

Pale steatite, traces of ~~clear light green glaze~~

Some evidence of a dark coating of some kind; present upn of material chalky white

Three winged (or hooded?)
figures marching to right, carrying staffs with bulbous
tops. one arm behind

3-12-25

Tomb 31

Kal

1954-76

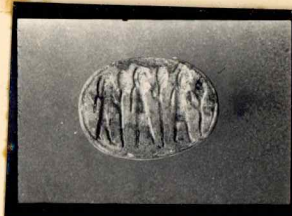

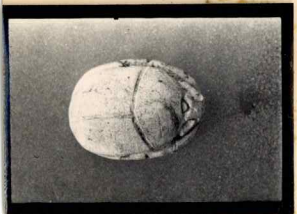

(16-17)

h. 0.008

d. 0.017

w. 0.012

Deeply incised scarab features on back; pierced longitudinally

76(15)

PTO

Burial Burial A (Cyp. Med. I) J.F.D. III, p. 60, # 125

1974-76 (6)

S32

K1167

Seal stone

Dome-shaped; of blue paste, powdery until strengthened with gelatine.

Rude carving. A man facing a stag rampant.

W. 0.08

H. 0.07

19-11-35

Kaloriziki
(Mersinoudia)
Tomb 34

Cypr. Gem. I

Not found

J.F.D.III. p.40. 55

S33

K1166

Seal stone

150 boxed

Dome-shaped oval

Steatite (?) pined through with

Rough carving. roughly circular

Two human figures
flanking a boukranion on a pole. A disc between the 15-7-34

horns; stars at the Kaloriziki sides.. Tomb 25

H.O.017

L.O.02

Published A.J.A.^{XLI}, (1937) 80 fig 11

J.F.D.I, p.137, no.a

S34

K1119

Ivory Button

Hole at center;
three grooves around perimeter.

Less than half preserved; mended.

Diam. est. 0.026
H. ca. 0.002

15-7-34
Kaloriziki
Tomb 25

Not found
Publ. A.J.A., 1937

J.F.D.I, p.137, no.c

S35

K1118

PTD

Ivory rod

15.0

50000

Circular in section.

Groups of three rings. at intervals of a

Four pieces preserved;
mended from fragments.

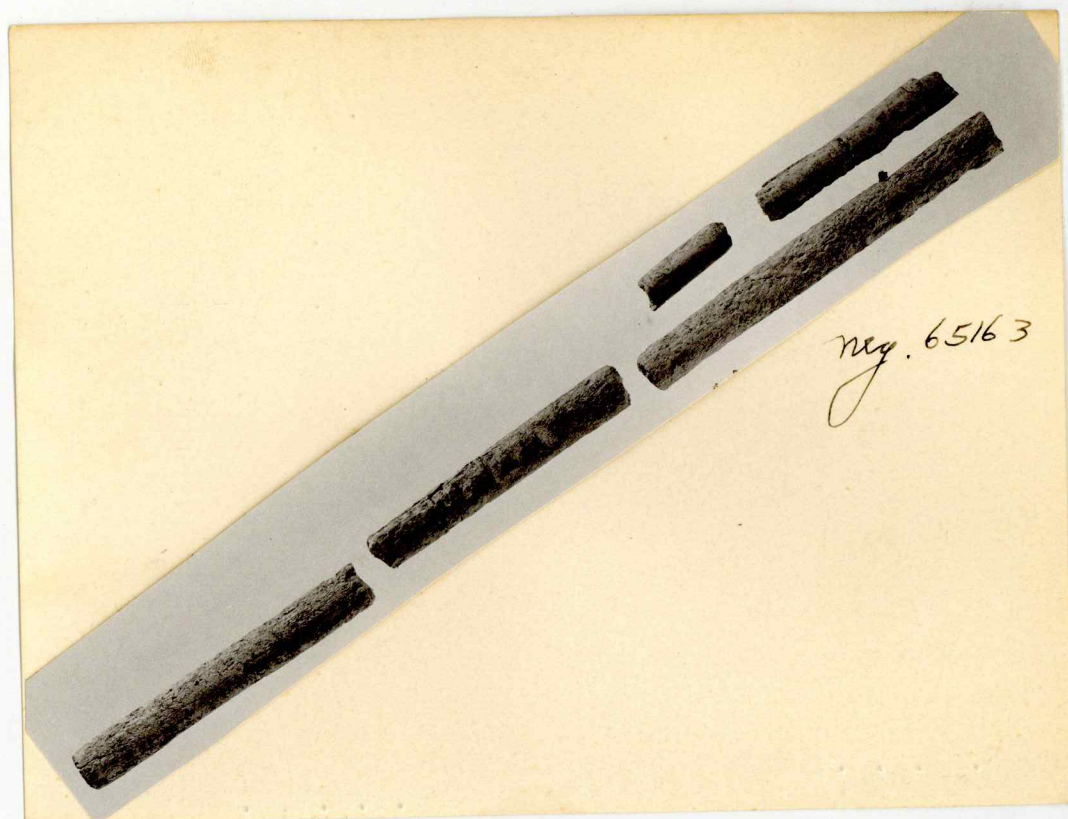

few unlimely?

Total length of frags.: 20-7-34
0.228 Kaloriziki
Tomb 25

very badly worked.

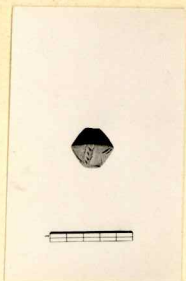

✓
Publ. A.J.A., 1937

J.F.D.I., p. 138: j

S36

K1161

1854-60

Terracotta spindle-whorl

Double-conical. Incised while damp.

Complete

H. 0.023

Diam. 0.023

4-8-34

Kaloriziki,

Tomb 26,

First burial

light grayish brown surface, gray

core, base-ring type clay surface probably once polished, perhaps also slipped, now very worn.

Double Incised ^{dotted} triangles on each side of each cone on one cone An additional >>

Publ. A.J.A., 1937

J.F.D.I., p. 182: a

S37

K1133

1854-10

Stone bead

almost perhaps better described

Spherical. Medium-light greenish grey stone (shale?)

Complete.

no decoration

small circular perforation

Diam. 0.016

Could be a spindle whorl?

4-8-34

Kaloriziki,

Tomb 26,

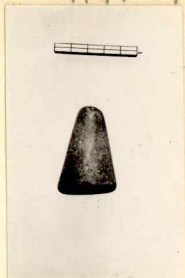

First burial

Publ. A.J.A., 1937

J.F.D.I., p. 182:c

S38

K1129

6854-60

Pestle

Pyramidal, circular in section. Of grey stone like S37. truncated conical chipped

Chipped.

H.0.05

Diam. 0.034

4-8-34

Kaloriziki,

Tomb 26,

First burial

Publ. A.J.A., 1937

J.F.D.I, p.182:i

S39

K1120

Ivory button

Low dome-shaped. Pierced at center. An incised rosette. — pattern very difficult to see, this seems to me

Complete but worn. only an inference

Diam. 0.021

H. 0.006

4-8-34

Kaloriziki,

Tomb 26,

~~XXXXX XXX~~

2nd burial

1854-10

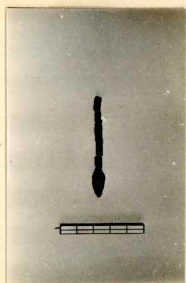

spindle wheel? or head?

✓
Publ. A.J.A., 1937

J.F.D.I, p.182:b

S40

K1165

U54-60

Wooden pin

Tapering knob at end.
Groups of three incisencircling lines on knob and stem.

Incomplete; mended

L.as pres. 0.059

light brown wood surface
now rotted

4-8-34
Kaloriziki,
Tomb 26,
2nd burial

✓
Mentioned A.J.A., 1937

A.F.D.I., p. 182: k